GUAM COUNCIL ON THE ARTS AND HUMANITIES AGENCY
Regular Board Meeting
December 3, 2019

I. CALL TO ORDER
The Guam Council on the Arts and Humanities Agency’s regular board meeting was called to order at 3:17 pm by Chairperson of the Board, Francis Guerrero. Board members present were Joey Certeza, Francisco Rabon, Patricia Krise, Maximo Ronquillo, Jr. (via teleconference), Donna Kloppenburg & Dr. Judy Flores. Also present were Acting Director Jacqueline Balbas, Program Coordinator Angie Taitague and Administrative Officer Sherrie Barcinas.

II. REVIEW AND APPROVAL OF MINUTES DATED November 5, 2019
Dr. Judy Flores motion to approve the minutes of November 5, 2019. Motion seconded by Ms. Kloppenburg.

UNANIMOUSLY APPROVED

III. EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR’S REPORT
Acting Director Balbas reported that Pulitzer Prize Winner Manny Crisostomo will be holding an exhibit at the East West Center in Hawaii on May 30 – September 13, 2020 which will take place during FestPac. The exhibit will feature photographs taken during FestPac in 2016 and some of the FestPac gifts. CAHA Staff Taitague is currently working on cataloguing each item to be sent to the organizers.

CAHA received a total of 168 applications for FestPac delegates. Of that amount, 65 fell under the category of 65 for demonstrations, exhibitions, special events and activities, 11 for literary arts and 92 for performing arts. Programming Chairs have begun conducting orientation meetings with the various groups to provide an overview of FestPac, what to expect and to get feedback on artists’ thoughts on what should be presented in 2020.

Acting Director Balbas and CAHA Staff Taitague met with representatives from the Guam Economic Development Authority and TNN on November 19, 2019 regarding the Percent for the Arts Program and are aware that they would have to comply with the mandate. A Memorandum of Agreement is currently being drafted for CAHA’s Board to review. The project is an expansion of Nikko Hotel and expected to open in April 2020 and TNN is aware that the Occupancy Permit will not be signed until the MOA is in place. TNN was informed of the agreement process which must be reviewed and approved by the Attorney General as well. As this time, CAHA has not determined the exact cost of its construction.

In reference to Bill No. 249-35, Senator San Agustin conducted a public hearing on bill, an act to make CAHA the lead agency for FestPac and to utilize Percent for the Arts monies to fund FestPac. Acting Director Balbas provided a testimony subject to certain amendments to the Bill 1) FestPac funds should only be used for 2020 and not for future FestPac’s as the funds received through the Percent for the Arts are not received on a steady basis and must seek an alternative source, and 2) a threshold for the funds used for FestPac 2020. Currently the Percent for the Arts Rules and Regulations is with Senator Marsh’s Office so the law could be amended to make changes and plan to use Percent funds to expand programs and a permanent home for CAHA. Senators present at the public hearing felt that culture is important but did not indicate how quickly they would act to the proposed amendments to the Percent for the Arts but was told the Legislature would probably not be in session until January 2020.

CAHA along with other government entities have been working together in organizing the Governor’s Christmas Festival. CAHA was tasked with soliciting artists’ participation for the fair and coordinating performances every Saturday until January 4, 2020 at the Guam Museum Outdoor Theatre.
IV. OLD BUSINESS
Reporting on the following is CAHA Staff Taitague

A. Percent for the Arts
   1. Update on Building Permits for % for the Arts – Pending November Listing from Dept.
      of Public Works
   2. Update - % for the Arts Regulations & Guidelines Amendment – Triple “A” Process
      Vice Chair Certeza requested to follow up with Roland Villaverde, representative from Senator Marsh’s office.
      a. GCEF – TASI
         An email was sent to DCA President Ann Marie Arceo requesting for an update on the Request for Proposal from the Guam Economic Development Authority.
      b. GRMC
         Nothing to report at this time
      c. Guam Congress Building (Legislature)
         Meeting still pending with Executive Director Joe San Agustin
      d. TNN Corporation
         A meeting was held on November 19, 2019 and the Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) is currently being drafted. Mr. Brian Pak visited the CAHA Office to obtain clearance on a partial occupancy permit for the project to begin as an anticipated grand opening is scheduled for April 2020. However, CAHA Staff Taitague had informed Mr. Pak that the MOU must be place prior to its signing and that it would be brought forth to the board for approval. Chairperson Guerrero pointed out that it was a full occupancy permit and there was no indication that it was partial. The partial notation was made by the Guam Power Authority during its clearance.
         Chairperson Guerrero requested that the Acting Director contact Mr. Ed Camacho from GEDA on the MOU.
         CAHA Staff Barcinas recommended that CAHA, GEDA and the Attorney General’s Office meet to review MOU beforehand to avoid any setbacks during the actual review process.
      e. Pending: GIAA (Airport), GCC, UOG, DOE & GHURA
         A response with regards to the use of federal funds under GHURA had already been received by the Attorney General’s Office which cited with GHURA. The letter was received by the Department of Chamorro Affairs back in November 2017 and was not forwarded to CAHA until recently.
         Chairperson Guerrero requested that this issue show as an example during the review on the amendment of the Percent for the Arts Rules and Regulations with Mr.
         Villaverde.

B. Masters Program and Policy – Status Quo

C. FestPac 2020

   CAHA Staff Barcinas provided and overview of the working budget that was presented by Senator Marsh at a recent public hearing.
   The actual expense for the delegation was trimmed down from $400,000 to $310,127.
   ≫ Travel costs for airfare and insurance would cover a total of 105 delegates of which 1 represents the Head of State, 1 the Head of Delegation and 3 CAHA Staff.
   ≫ The lodging, meals and accommodations are for expenses of 3 staff outside of the 100 delegates.
➢ Transportation costs is if there is a need to transport large crafts from artisans to and from venue sites.
➢ Uniforms expense are for the official fabric and t-shirts that would be used by the delegation to include uniforms for the performing arts group.
➢ VIP Reception to host Heads of States, dignitaries and the Guam Delegation ➢ Delegation gifts to be presented to Hawaii Head of State and dignitaries
➢ Host Country Requirements are usually a number of Guam flags per venue site ➢ Culinary Demonstrations should there be delegates selected under this category, items will be provided for demonstrations.
➢ Shipping costs – 20’ container provided the committee decides to ship a canoe and other items from artisans to display/exhibit, demonstrate.
➢ Technical Production for videography and photography
➢ Banners for disciplines & genres to be placed at assigned delegation venue
➢ Contingency emergency fund for unexpected as needed expenses.

As previously mentioned, budget constitutes as a working budget and changes may be made to reduce costs as the committee finalizes each item.

Vice Chair Certeza felt that since the performing group is being allotted for their uniforms that the other artisans receive some type of honorarium for producing their crafts.

Mr. Rabon added to say that the difference between the performing artists and visual arts is that they sale their crafts and does not go back to CAHA. An artist could sale one piece and receive $1,000 and becomes their pocket money whereas performing artists do not get paid at all performing at least 5-6 times a day versus a demonstration of an hour for the rest of the day. These have to all be considered with regards to equality.

After some discussion, board members felt that a percentage from artists sales could go back to CAHA of which was requested to look into its legality for consideration.

As part of the working budget, the in-kind/sweat equity was included for 96 delegates, however a correction was made to include the 4 programming chairs at 400 hours at a minimum wage of $8.75 per hour totaling $350,000. This is to show the amount of time spent by the delegates from the time they prepare to the time they leave and what they’re worth which is almost equivalent to the expenses. Dr. Flores added that the time spent by the delegates during the two weeks of FestPac is also a considerable amount of sweat and equity.

Mr. Rabon questioned the current protocol as lead agency for FestPac and stated that until such time that Bill 249-35 is passed for CAHA to become lead agency, the Department of Chamorro Affairs (DCA) as Head of Delegation shall utilize its staff and seek its funding source as CAHA has been separated from DCA through an Executive Order.

Dr. Flores recommended that the Head of Delegation meet with the Governor to call a session with the Legislature to get the funding issue resolved.

Acting Director Balbas reiterated Bill 249-35 should include verbiage in which funding shall only be utilized for FestPac 2020 and not future FestPac’s or outstanding debts. Chairperson Guerrero requested that Acting Director Balbas inform Ann Marie Arceo to send a letter to the Guam Visitors Bureau as Head of Delegation to obtain information on any outstanding debts from FestPac 2016. The letter shall be countersigned by Chairperson Guerrero or Acting Director Balbas if need be.

Chairperson Guerrero questioned whether fundraising or sponsorships have already been initiated at which time CAHA staff said the Executive Committee has yet to begin. After some discussion, the board requested that both fundraising efforts and sponsorship begin immediately as CAHA would be at risk should the law be signed in January 2020 and the coordination of FestPac would then be handed to CAHA. An early is would be more advantageous to lessen the negatively that the public has placed with regards to funding the delegation.

12.03.2019 Board Minutes

Acting Director Balbas added to say that the letter from the Governor designating Ann Marie as Head of Delegation and Senator Marsh as Co-Chair to the FestPac Task Force has caused confusion as far as working together and leading the Task Force in having tasks done.

D. Sub-Committee updates on Gallery and Art Bank Program & Artists' Membership Program

Vice Chair Cerreta reported that both the Gallery and Art Bank Program updates remain status quo. Artists' Membership Program shall begin in January 2020 pending details to strengthen the program for both staff and artists.

V. NEW BUSINESS

Chairperson Guerrero requested the distribution of CAHA information to new board members and to revisit the Strategic Plan.

VI. BUDGET REPORTS

Reporting on the following is CAHA Staff Barcenas.

A. CAHA FY 2019/2020 Appropriation Accounts

FY 2019 account remains open pending approved grant extensions of sub grantees which shall be closing by end of December 2019.

FY 2020 expenditures have been made in Salaries and Benefits with encumbrances in basic operational costs. Sub grantees agreements have been processed with the first batch of 8 being encumbered and installment payments to be released sometime this month.

The requisition to obtain an office and gallery space had already been submitted to General Services Agency to begin the bid process. Although board members recommended seeking space in the Tamuning and other areas within the vicinity of Hagatna, the locations did not meet CAHA's requirements or not within the budget range. CAHA anticipates a bid award sometime in January or February 2020.

B. CAHA Non-Appropriation / Revolving Accounts

No significant payments were paid from the non-appropriated accounts.

VII. OTHER ANNOUNCEMENTS & DISCUSSIONS

Vice Chair Cerreta's board appointment expires December 31, 2019 and anticipates a reappointment. Chairperson Guerrero requested to follow up with Legal Counsel on Mayor's Council representative to the board.

Next Board Meeting scheduled for January 7, 2020

Háfa Adai Board Members,

REQUEST FOR EXTENSION
I’m writing to request one last extension for my 2019 short film Grant Project My Grandma the Sun (now retitled). The funds to move this project past beginning stages came in very late. Because of this, I lost one funding source that wasn’t available without the release of CAHA funds and expired before funds were released. This required me to do more fundraising. Additionally, many involved including myself were at their busiest time of year when the project finally started. I did not want to ask our editors to spend additional time away from family during the Thanksgiving and Christmas holidays to complete the film since several are working in-kind and others aren’t charging a lot. Additionally, I’m still in the process of obtaining permissions to use several of the film clips that I’ve edited in. I’d like to request an extension through the end of February 2020 at which time I will have completed the edit, screenings and reports.

Filming is complete, editing is in progress, screenings are tentatively scheduled. I’m sharing an edit with you so that you can see the quality and progress even without audio editing and design but, please, this clip should not be shared:

Under the best of circumstances, I take pride in keeping deadlines. However, I appreciate your understanding of the difficulties faced with the funding delays of this past year.

Thank you for your consideration.

Kon Respetu,

Cara Flores Mays
Hafa Adai Angie, thanks for the quick response.

Next Wednesday at 10 am sounds good to me.

Just to let you know, regardless of how this works out between myself and CAHA, I still have to proceed with the project.

I’ve already set things in motion. I’famagu’on-ta is in, the kids are in, and I have no intention of letting them down, so I have to keep going.

Humanities Guahan has informed me that they are a potential funding source. If CAHA can’t be a funding source, that’s okay, I would still like the CAHA’s involvement either way.

Hafa Adai Angie,

Just a little update. Nothing has even started yet. I’m still recruiting students. I’m still working out the logistics with I’famagu’on-ta. It was more than a little difficult to get anything going during the holidays. As per my last email, I never received any response to my questions. However this pans out, I’m committed to the project and to I’famagu’on-ta, so I will continue with it, but I don’t know if the CAHA grant is going to work for me. Because I was only informed at the signing of our contract that I will be working with at-risk-youth, I didn’t account for transportation for the students. And because funds will only be appropriated after the fact, I can’t afford to pay for rehearsal or performance space out of pocket and transportation. Angie, I need to sit down with you at some point so we can figure out how to resolve this. The time in which I’m given to execute this project, taking into consideration the demographic of students that CAHA wants is not realistic. As it stands, I won’t be able to complete this project until February.
